RIGHT OF DOWER EXPIRED

UNASSERTED FOR MORE THAN

TWENTY YEARS.

Answer of Principal Defendant to Suit for the Japanese Hospital Property

On Liliha Street.

M. S. Perriera has filed in the Circuit Court his answer to the libel of Sophia

H. Kahaleaahu for possession of the house and lot recently leased by him to Dr. Kobayashi for the purposes of a Japanese hospital. The property is situated on Liliha street and has become quite valuable.

A short time ago the woman sued for the property on the ground that she was the wife of the original owner and had never signed away her dower right. Perriera in his answer does not deny this contention, but avers that twenty years have elapsed since this dower right has been asserted and that under the law it is no longer operative.

He states that he has personally known the property ten years and that never during that time has plaintiff set up any claim whatever to it.

Kapiolani Estate has entered suit against W. R. Castle, as trustee for

S. M. W. Kawelo, to recover a piece of land at Waikiki; also, a suit against

L. K. Puahi to recover a valuable tract in Emma street alleged to be unlawfully held by the defendant.

The ejectment matter of J. A. Ma-gdon vs. Yee Kung Tong, in which his attorney, T. McCant Stewart, has moved that the same be heard on October 21.

FIRE ON MAUI.

Two Thousand Acres of Pasture Burned Over.

PAIA (MAUI), October 7.—Makawao experienced a grand old pasture fire on Thursday, the flames sweeping over about 2,000 acres, all of which was devoted to pasture. Starting from a little fire in the field below the Makawao school, the wind swept it along toward Grove Ranch, and it spread rapidly in all directions, it being impossible to check it. It went on and on taking fences and trees in its way.

Jumped across a deep wide gulch, and did not stop until it had reached the Government road from Makawao to Kahului, over in Kula. Some four hundred laborers turned out from the plantation to the scene, but nothing could be done but watch it burn. Paia plantation lost about 1,500 young trees that were set along a gulch, and it is
